Dear Sir: Please make Lindberg shut his big mouth. He is un-American and is doing Hitler a lot of harm by his speeches and doing Hitler a lot of good. He calls himself "Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh". He is not a Col but a traitor and if he were in some foreign countries & would talk against their go he would be put up against a stone wall & shot. Free speech is ok but not when it injures Uncle Sam. I am 58 years old - was a 4 minute speaker during world war - have Hon. discharge as such - have always been 100% American but I can not stand for any one to cuckle Uncle Sam. If Lindberg won't fight him an apion & let him peel potatoes - there are enough old men women & kids here to whip Hitler. You know one rotten apple in a barrel will ruin the whole barrel. So please muzzle the above named traitor - coward - you can send him a copy of letter if you care to.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

I have received a copy of the letter which you addressed to the Vice President under date of July 5, 1941, and the reference communication, consisting of an unidentified letter addressed to Mr. Wallace from Port au Prince, Haiti, complaining concerning the use of franked envelopes bearing the name of Congressman James C. Oliver for the transmission of reprints of the testimony of Charles A. Lindbergh before a United States Senate Committee. I am incorporating this information in the files of the Bureau, but in the absence of a specific request I will initiate no investigation. Since the subject matter of this complaint relates to an alleged irregularity on the part of a member of Congress I do not believe the Bureau should initiate any investigation in the absence of specific Departmental instruction to do so.

I am returning herewith the letter of July 8, 1941, from the Vice President and the enclosure mentioned therein, copies thereof having been retained in the Bureau files.

CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Sir:

In a recent issue of the New York Herald Tribune I notice that your attention has been drawn to the apparent abuse by certain congressmen of their "franking" privileges, and in that connection I think the following statement may be of interest.

Two or three months ago I received a franked envelope bearing the name of James C. Oliver, Congressman, enclosing long reprints of the testimony of Charles A. Lindbergh before a Committee of the U. S. Senate. I had never heard of Mr. Oliver and was at a loss to know how he happened to have my name and address. I noticed that the post mark was New York not Washington and that the address was by "sticker" such as is used by publications to which one subscribes. My name and address were correct but the expiry date did not seem to correspond with any publication to which I subscribe regularly. After looking over my checks in payment of my subscriptions I found that this sticker was normally attached to copies of the "Commentator". When Lowell Thomas was editor of this magazine I was a subscriber, but when it was taken over by Scribner and I found that it was pro-Nazi, I told them to discontinue sending copies to me. It would appear, therefore, that these franked envelopes were turned over unaddressed to the "Commentator" and that they used the mailing list of their subscribers to spread the doctrines of Lindbergh and his kind.

I have been told that when the "Commentator" changed hands, Lindbergh was the prime mover and that it was understood that the paper would be a medium for airing his views and those other anti Americans whose superior wisdom and knowledge make about 90% of their fellow countrymen ignoramuses, according to them.

Being British, I do not love Lindbergh and threw the reprints of his testimony in the waste basket. I have marked this letter "confidential" as I do not wish to have my name mentioned but the subject matter is at your disposal. I may say that I am Auditor of an American Company here.

MEMORANDUM FOR HONORABLE J. EDGAR HOOVER,
DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

This refers to your memorandum of July 18, concerning Marvin E. Rutherford of Abilene, Texas, who claims that he sent plans for a bullet-proof non-inflammable airplane gasoline tank to Colonel Lindbergh, and that such a tank was found on a German airplane shot down in England. Rutherford suspects that Colonel Lindbergh may have transmitted his plans to a foreign government.

The facts set forth in the complaint contain no evidence of a violation of a Federal criminal statute. No investigation should, therefore, be made.

Matthew F. McGuire

I have received many letters in praise of Lowell's and my article on Lindbergh and of course, many viciously attacking both of us.

Practically all of the letters in disagreement carry neither signature nor address. Included in the batch was the enclosed and I am sending it on to you with the thought that you might want to pass it on to your friends in the F.B.I. "He anti-Semitic" he claimed. "That's a joke, anyhow. He, the chief assistant and investigator is Sam Bernstein. When I was investigating the railroads, Mar fired a big staff of assistants. SUPER MAN

If Charles A. Lindbergh must discard his attitude of modesty in the interest of "keeping America out of war," why not send him to Germany and Italy to do his talking. There is nothing on record to indicate that he has ever offended Hitler or Mussolini. On the other hand his unfriendliness to Great Britain is obvious to the world. His willingness to let German military power gradually envelop the world is evident in his repeated claims that England would be defeated and that the United States had better keep out of the mess.

If Lindbergh is truly in earnest and believes that the United States alone in a world dominated by Germany, Italy and Japan victorious over Great Britain and Russia, could retain its democratic independence, let us send him to Berlin to intercede for peace "for the United States."

Let Lindbergh tell Hitler on some plan to convince loyal Americans that once he has conquered all of Europe and Africa he will not include South America, Central America, Mexico, Alaska and Hawaii" in his plan for reforming the world according to Nazi standards. Better still, let Lindbergh ignore Hitler, for the sake of letting the German war lord remain neutral in the matter, and go direct to the American people with his message. He would Hitler will be glad to permit Lindbergh "free speech" in Germany and throughout conquered Europe, to talk about negotiated peace.

It is not enough for Lindbergh to tell intelligent American citizens that Hitler has no designs on them. If he wants a negotiated Hitler-peace, he must first tell the top-ranking peace-making-by-force ruler on how such a peace could assure those few unconquered nations of the world that later on a rested and revitalized Germany might not want to extend its protection to the German, Italian and Japanese minorities within their borders.

Instead of trying to pull an eroded American public into a false feeling of security that their aroused public is hoodwinked by his "super man" talk, Lindbergh had best go to Berlin and tell Hitler what he is doing.

cause the isolationists in Congress fought efforts to maintain a strong army, navy and air force starting back in 1919, and continuing in spite of the fact that certain prominent isolationists visited Germany and had a chance to see for themselves what Germany was doing world nearer or later threaten our national safety.

PRIVILEGE!

With all due respect to the loyal American citizens of Oklahoma City, it does seem undemocratic to deny Lindbergh the right to speak in their auditorium. While the great majority of Americans are pro-British, realizing that it is good for us to be allied with the great English-speaking and peace-loving democracy that stands between the United States and the aggressor nations, actually we are not at open war.

It follows that some Americans are pro-German and yet they may be loyal to our nation in the final showdown.

If Lindbergh is granted the right of free speech something also permitted in England but long denied to citizens of Hitler's Germany, and then if the American public draws the conclusion from Lindbergh's speeches that he is pro-Hitler, that is a stigma that must bear.

What Americans think of him is determined by what he says, and it is a matter of record that blames Britain for entering the war, even Poland for resisting Germany, but never since he criticized Hitler for having plunged the world in the agony of the present bloodbath.

Yes, if the American public gets the idea Lindbergh is pro-Nazi, it is because he has had an opportunity to exercise his democratic privilege "free speech."

An American in Germany (or in Russia) who for that matter would have a much better air trying to tell the citizens of that country how pro-American he might be.

Let Lindbergh talk. If in our democracy a majority is finally convinced that a Hitler-directed peace and a Nazi-controlled world is best for us, it is very hard to take, but here the majority rule, and we know that majority is anti-Lindbergh. So let the democratic privilege,

WAR

Certainly Hitler, if given half of his proposed proposal that would guarantee that sooner or later Germany fat and strong as the result of conquest, and with its military and naval forces greatly strengthened during a few months or a few years of inactivity, would not again turn its forces of destruction upon that small portion of the world then resisting his policy of world reconstruction.

We know what a mighty military force Hitler built for Germany during seven lean years, years of bitter depression, years of sacrifice, years of hunger, years of treaty-breaking, years of international suspicion. Give him another seven years of peace, and with the resources of conquered Europe, Africa and parts of Asia, he will, indeed, come close to being the very first man to rule the entire globe, Japan and Italy notwithstanding.

Lindbergh may see all of this, but he may still believe that even under such circumstances, it would be much better to take the chance, than to waste American lives trying in vain to stem what may seem to him an impossible and overwhelming tide.

It could be that he has "something." Just what, we do not see clearly. He knows that Americans desire peace, but not peace at any price. If it is peace and security for the American people that he wants, and he really feels that Germany is invincible, then it would seem that he could best serve the citizens of the United States by going direct to the men who started all of this bloodshed, Herr Hitler, and there plead for some assurance that would guarantee individual, personal, political, social and economic independence, to those nations yet unconquered, in a world otherwise controlled by a much stronger and better armed nation than even Germany is today.

Americans are an intelligent people. This is unfortunate for Hitler. They see through his scheme to ride the world by playing one nation against another, until, one at a time, he can gradually take them all under his protective custody. Any one, isolationists or otherwise, who tries to say that Germany is not a threat to the independence of the United States insults the native intelligence of millions of American citizens.

Americans are now awake to the fact that the United States must arm hastily and in expensive confusion in a few months time to offset seven years of intense preparation for war by Hitler, simply be-

As an American citizen and a veteran of the world war, I claim the right to frankly criticize that laxity on the part of our Federal Officials which permits Charles A. Lindberg to broadcast the most flagrant German propaganda in the guise of well-intentioned effort to keep the people of the United States out of war.

An examination of his latest broadcasts, made at a time when the moral of the American and English nations and their complete cooperation is so vastly important to the successful conclusion to activities which may determine the future of our nation, leaves no doubt as to the damnable nature of Mr. Lindberg's real aims.

The strongest proof of his disloyalty is found in his most recent utterances. He states that England will turn against the United States before this war is over if it proves to her interest to do so, and he attempts to prove this by a statement that England has turned against France.

Any intelligent American Citizen, and also Mr. Lindberg, knows that England did not turn against France, and that the activities of England against the Territory Occupied by France has been necessary because it is used by Germany for military purposes. The same holds true in all cases where England and any French interests have been placed in juxtaposition.

INDEXED RECORDED

He states that in the future the two great victors of the air will be Germany and the United States. This is only another way of stating that Germany will win the present war.

These utterances of Mr. Lindberg, made at this time, open to serious question the propriety and dignity of his activities even before this war commenced. Why did he establish a residence in England when he did when before cites the last 150 years of history to prove his statement that England is not a loyal and responsible nation in world affairs?

The nature of his reports at the time of his visit to Russia which antagonized the officials of that country would also come under question, as would his continued leaning toward Germany which has culminated in broadcasting to the American people a near praise of Germany's outrageous use of force.

There is no question that the propaganda contained in his recent broadcasts is highly welcome to Mr. Hitler and his cohorts and there is no question that Mr. Lindberg has sufficient intelligence to know it.

B7C

HONOLULU, HAWAII

I believe that it is strong in the minds of many American people that the evidence and the urgent necessity is sufficient that Charles A. Lindberg should be put under immediate surveillance and restraint as directed by the Government of the United States.

Dear Sir

I have just read an article in the Boston Sunday Globe date of Sept 21st by Rabbi Wise of Boston Mass; wherein he commented on the speech of Charles Lindbergh which he delivered the same at Davenport Iowa, in which he abused the Jews, and praised Hitler to the highest high and proclaimed the Jews to be hangmen or in other words a pack of Blood Suckers, and said that America was the only country on the face of the earth where the Jew were allowed to do business, and as he further put it they ran rampant all over the country, and also claimed that our country should make a negociate peace with Hitler, and that all the help we give

Mr J Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir

I have just read an article in the Boston Sunday Globe under date of Sep't 21st by Rabbi Wise of Boston Mass, wherein he comments on the speech of Charles A. Lindberg who delivered the same at Desmoines Iowa, in which he abused the Jews, and praised Hitler to the highest hights, and proclaimed the Jews to be hangers on or in other words a pack of blood suckers, and said that America was the only country on the face of the earth where the Jews were allowed to do buisness, and as he Lindberg put it they ran ramparth all over the country, and also claimed that our country should make a negociated peace with old Hitler, and that all the help we give to Great Britton and Russia will be just like so much going to the dumps, for Hitler was going to win out. Now Mr. Hoover I think a lot of you as a man who believes in fair play, and one thing is positively sure if any other person Man or Woman in our country to day ever did or dared to do or say what this offscouring of Hades Charles A Lindberg has already been guilty of doing to try and disrupt our Nation, the way this man has, they would have been arrested and put behind the bars in the Federal Penetemuary at Atlanta, Ga. along with the notorious Gaston B. Means. Now Mr. Hoover one thing is sure this mans mill clapper has got to be closed and he be made to desist in the future from giveing out anymore of his Mattle Snake Vememous poison, amoung our people, or there will surely be a disruption in our Goverment that will culmenlate in a Reverlution, for this man Charles A Lindberg a vetruable?? divel straight from Hades, like his Father before him who was a Pro German to the core, and had to be centured and put through a course of sproutes by our Goverment when Mr Palmer was head of the F. B. I. years ago when the other war was going on, because of his Pro German talk and his attempting to get men to resist the draft laws, and Lindbergs Father was hand and Glove with Germany and the old Kaiser, and defied President Wilson and our whole Goverment and had nerve personerfied and said he loved Germany and all they stand for

But Mr Hoover you are the one and only man who can compel this notorious Bird Lindberg to desist and close up his clam shell. Free speach or no free speach free country or no free country, this can be made to stop and God knows he must be made to stop come what may Mr Hoover, and you are the one and the only one who can do this, and believe it or not if shuch is accomplished it will be the means of preserveing our Republic, and the unity of the same and God knows what I say is true, at any cost this God forsaken Rebel of A Mattle Snake must be made to stop before it is to late. But Mr Hoover please dont think I wish to interfere or to dictate to you, far from it, but I have the welfare of my own country at heart, I love my country and my poor old Dad was a volentere in our Civil war, who fought for the preservation of our Union during our civil war, and you cant blame me Mr Hoover for feeling the way I do, when I know what is going on in relation to this wolf in sheep clothing Lindberg a blamed traitor. This man thinks because he married a Morrow and has a few dollars and hapened to fly accross the pond to France and had a medel joined on his brest by old Hitler the off scourings of Hades, and has not enough manhood or stability in his make up to denounce old Hitler, and throw his old medel back at him, and cast him aside as a bad Egg. Dear Sir, your recent attack in the press linking Chas Lindberg with a Nazis is unjustified and an insult to real Americans, with all those stupid speeches coming from the White House dictator and ~~the~~ Hitler and comrades of Joe Stalin, Mr. Lindberg along with other real Americans like Senators Wheeler, Nye, Johnson and many others command the respect of true and real Americans, if there were more men like them we would have unity instead of contempt for the administration.

An angle on the British point of view may be shown by this excerpt out of a letter from England.

"In the Weald I went by Lindbergh's old house. A lot of people who move in the Publicity and Press circles in London seem to think his rudeness while there was part of a pose to get publicity. 700 Express Their Views On Lindbergh Editorial

Approximately 700 letters, telegrams and postcards have been received by The Standard-Times, Newbury, in comment on the editorial, "Farewell to Lindbergh," written by Stephen Brewer, publisher. The editorial, which appeared in these newspapers Sept. 26, called for aid to the Lindbergh boy.

It declared: "All due credit is due our associates and to Lindbergh's sincerity, straightforwardness and elements, who know exactly what they are doing, in supporting Lindbergh. These elements show the Lindbergh's unfeigned statements are nothing good Nazi propaganda. . . . I would like to see the dream (of Lindbergh and his wife) broken by both long enough for Lindbergh to know what he has been doing TO—and not FOR—this country."

The editorial also appeared in many other newspapers, among them the New York Times; Boston Herald; Chicago Tribune; Elkhorn (N.J.) Daily Journal; Fort Wayne (Ind.) Journal-Gazette; Green (Ohio) Call; Columbia City (Ind.) City Post; Centerville (Ia.) Journal; Bloomington (Ind.) Telephone; High Point (N.C.) Enterprise; Stamford (Conn.) Advocate; Women's Wear Daily, published in New York City; Madison (Wis.) Capital Times; Wichita (Kan.) Eagle; Tulsa (Okla.) Tribune and World; Roselle (N.J.) Spectator.

Cabinet Members Write

Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, wrote concerning it: "Your 'Farewell to Lindbergh' is a sound, strong piece of truth that ought to be read by every American."

Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy, wrote: "I cannot restrain myself in sending you my congratulations on a job well done."

Robert Bayard Swope, former executive editor of the New York World, wrote: "It is done well."

George A. Curtis, general manager of United Feature Syndicate, and J. Schlesinger, one of the great leaders of our time, William T. Byrnes, editor of The Standard Times of Madison, Wis., "I am reproducing the 'Farewell to Lindbergh' editorial in The Standard Times as a public service."

I believe that the sympathetic attitude of Lindbergh is one of the best proofs of his sincere and devoted nature. His sympathy and devotion to Lindbergh is unfeigned.

Letters objecting to the views expressed by the editorial were received and examples of both types of letters are published below.

Below, following, is a list of names of persons who sent in their comments on the "Farewell to Lindbergh" editorial.

has been perused carefully, and a few points crop up.

So much "knowledge of elements of history" which you attribute to Mr. Lindbergh seems to have invaded your editorial sometime—Great Britain and France rightfully could have been called "interventionists" in Poland and Czechoslovakia ever since the close of the World War—but it was the Jauney of those two nations which supported the two smaller countries in order to build a ring around Germany and, inadvertently, they set the stage for the present war.

I admit we accepted help from France in the War of Independence, but we were intelligent enough to stay out of another war at a later date, although France did make many claims for aid on the basis of her aid during the Revolution. Our leaders at that time were gifted with a sense of statesmanship, in addition to being Americans.

Abraham Lincoln did not "intervene" in the War between the States—he acted at the head of a great nation—had Andrew Jackson been living at that time, the action would have been swifter, the language more salty.

Regardless of how small a wealthy percentage of the population of this country, its actors, playwrights, propaganda agents of every breed may pant for war, these four points remain undisputed on the American scene:

THAT WE were led blindfolded into the last war, and now we have nothing to show for our participation but white crosses, broken bodies and minds, a vast depression, a huge load of debt, and the contempt of our former allies.

THAT A war-minded clique is using press, radio, lecture platform, and movies to get us into another war which 80 percent of the American people don't want.

AFTER THIS European war is over, you can still trade with the rest of the world, no matter who winds up on the top of the heap of this present dog fight in the Old World, for no proof to the contrary ever has been presented that we then would be isolated. You've done business with all the world on the terms dictated by Great Britain ever since you were a country—you even fought a second war with them to get a decent break in that regard.

THAT WE are loaded with debt now—the burden will become greater, all in the name of spreading the four freedoms, and any participation on our part in this war will fill more graves, more hospitals, more institutions, and we then will beg for help from the same countries, in particular from Great Britain, and the German government seems to like to bully, said Britain has the view of isolation, and Marshal's suggestion has been followed only by the Ambassador Kennedy. It appears to be natural to draw men from Europe to aid us Roosevelt returns to Europe, one other than himself—possibly Churchill or Stalin.

Please, Mr. Brewer, do not worry about Mr. Lindbergh being played for a sucker." Mr. Lindbergh is capable of taking care of himself.

From: Gay G. Dillow, technical superintendent, Dr. Pierre Chambon Co., Chicago.

I wish to congratulate you on your editorial, "Farewell to Lindbergh." It was timely, and particularly fitting that it was published in the Chicago Tribune. The Tribune rather would see this country sink to the abyssal depths of hell rather than support or approve any policy of the present Administration.

The President may be wrong in some measures but he sincerely and courageously is attempting to defend our standards of life and the rights which are the inherent legacy of the people of this nation. It is the hope of all free men that the President is right in the administration of our foreign policy but, right or wrong, he is our President and all patriotic citizens will stand by him in this crisis.

Again it is a privilege to congratulate you upon your wonderful the foolish policy of the President, which has brought us to the very brink of war, and is likely to bring us into war. We have demanded a dissolution of Congress, and I would like to see that people who have such action made to offer sufficient reasons for personal intervention. The fact that they have been Lindbergh and Lindbergh's government. Whether any other course of any other party is known or a fool to implement either for or against entering in war. The terrible Americans will go by entering in war with most European Asiatic powers decided that the time be considered fully and fully, and with a complete thinking of all the possibilities and risk, and the dangers of entry and the dangers of not entering.

The future of America will be jeopardized in other ways, however. American prosperity and happiness of the remainder of our lives and generations to come depend upon the correct decision being made. The charter, actions and speeches of the President, his Cabinet, and certain others in Congress will influence us to proceed and actuated, but when people who want to "destroy" make use of article one of their as their principal argument, they thereby exclude the chance of their cause.

Linbergh offered me a new way of history to read that George Washington and the soldiers of the revolution were interventionists, but Lincoln's use of force to end the breakup of the Union.

Referring to something that is in your editorial, I observe that the chief reason that the world gives now for his step and our is the preservation of freedom of the seas. The intervention of "freedom of the seas" is rather interesting. The other day, "I will mark out parts of the ocean as suits our country necessary for the safety of America and we will not let any German warships that sail in those regions." Also the American Bar Association (Knox, Younce, and President) says that Great Britain and the United States must control the sea for the next century. And they call that "freedom of the seas."

It is a great field of travel and adventure, the State of Illinois and the United States and the world, I have had my own experiences to get into the ocean, but as a result of the intervention of the American Bar Association, I am a little worried about the future of the world. I have had my own experiences to get into the ocean, but as a result of the intervention of the American Bar Association, I am a

From:

J. W. Cooper,

Johnson Heights, N. Y.

I have read your editorial, "Farewell to Lindbergh," with profound sorrow. Whatever else may be said about Mr. Lindbergh, I and thousands of others like me, believe that he is motivated by the single unshakable desire to keep his country clear of the disastrous consequences of interfering in European wars.

I submit that his English, his grammar and his rhetoric are not proper subjects for criticism, as relating to his views on foreign and domestic affairs.

It is true that Major de Seversky has challenged some of Lindbergh's views on aviation; but an honest difference of opinion does not prove Lindbergh wrong and Major de Seversky right or vice versa. I have the impression that Al Williams, writing for the Scripps - Howard newspapers, would incline towards Lindbergh's views on aviation; and he is presumed to be an authority on aviation also.

The American people lifted Lindbergh to his present position after he flew the Atlantic in 1927. I, for one, never believed that Lindbergh deserved the acclaim that he received for his great solo flight. Alcock and Brown, who first flew the Atlantic non-stop in an airplane, deserved the plaudits that went to Lindbergh; but who remembers those two intrepid pioneers in trans-ocean flying? That, however, has nothing to do with Lindbergh's present views. Lindbergh's father opposed our entry in the World War and was "stoned and egged for his pains." Isn't it rather generally agreed that we made a grave and costly error by entering that conflict? Doesn't every authoritative American historian agree that we actually had as much cause to fight England as we had to fight Germany? Isn't it a fact that the Allies pleaded with us to save them and then ridiculed our efforts and called us "Uncle Shylock" when the war was finally won for "Democracy"?

Was Lindbergh wrong when he called our New Deal Administration extravagant, imprudent, inefficient and visionary theorists? Do you sanction the sensational, hysterical propaganda emanating from the pro-war group designed to arouse the fear of the American people while in the same breath criticizing Lindbergh for an emotional appeal endeavoring to bring home to the American people the horrors of war?

Lindbergh has been criticized for wanting a neutral zone for the Central American countries. The Central American countries, however, in a recent plebiscite, voted in favor of the American plan.

Major and the model given to him at that time that the whole world have been given to any national entity of any country. Why should he return to the same below any man who graduated a degree from a German University during the Nazi regime, should return his degree. This action, in my estimation, would be childish. And, doesn't any man who charges that I am greatest booster of Hitler's war is a dirty, unscrupulous liar.

If Lindbergh is even a little pre-Nazi, as some seem to believe, why on earth did he return to England after inspecting the German Air Force and urge the English to look to their air defenses? If Lindbergh were pre-Nazi would he not prefer to let the English sleep; let them believe that they had nothing to fear from the German air force? Is it logical to believe that he would urge the English to prepare themselves to combat a powerful German air force? Just because the English refused to heed his warning is no reason to criticize Lindbergh for his efforts to awaken them from their compacency.

You say: "He prophesied that Britain would fall within 20 to 60 days after Dunkirk." Didn't most of us? And then Mr. Shirer, in his "Berlin Diary" gives us the possible explanation for Lindbergh's and our error. Mr. Shirer says that Hitler did not try to defeat Britain after Dunkirk. He says that Hitler thought Britain would be willing to negotiate a peace very favorable to Germany, thus enabling Germany to "win the war without invading Britain." Shirer says that this delay by Hitler very well may have been a fatal error which cost Germany victory. If Shirer is correct, why blame Lindbergh for his inability to read Hitler's mind? Had Hitler acted promptly to invade Britain immediately after Dunkirk, Lindbergh's prophecy might well have been true.

It is my own view that we have now gone so far on the road to war that it is too late to turn back. The die is cast and, like it or not, as good Americans we must stand together. I hope that Mr. Lindbergh soon will reach this conclusion, but whether he does or not I cannot condemn him for his efforts to keep us out of what is bound to be a most disastrous venture, even in victory. Instead of a "Farewell to Lindbergh," I think you may hear much more of this courageous young man in the next few years when we all will be looking for patriots instead of politicians.

From:

Cooper Aphrodite,

Woodhaven, N.Y.

You have published a wonderful service to our country in publishing "Farewell to Lindbergh." It is a clear and uncompromising statement of the case.

I often have wondered, however, what effect Mr. Lindbergh's statements will have on the public.

Very good and valid opinion is expressed in your letter, but the question is, does it have any influence? I am afraid that the answer is no. Lindbergh's pronouncements as to his neutrality and Germany's neutrality, I am afraid to tell you, have been beaten the press and are almost forgotten.

Indeed, as I recall, word to cooperation by Lindbergh before Congress was accepted that he and his wife would go to England after inspecting the German Air Force and urge the English to look to their air defenses. If Lindbergh were pre-Nazi would he not prefer to let the English sleep; let them believe that they had nothing to fear from the German air force? Is it logical to believe that he would urge the English to prepare themselves to combat a powerful German air force? Just because the English refused to heed his warning is no reason to criticize Lindbergh for his efforts to awaken them from their compacency.

Who said Britain was innocent, and Germany usurper? Why, Mr. Lindbergh—and I know because he did not say whom whom, namely, but

Mr. Lindbergh has stuck to it ever since, but nothing as much as this interpretation. To the world that he knew what the Nazis had. My own impression is that Lindbergh is there made to fit his psychological disturbance due to his father's experience. His wife have been affected by their wide travel, especially countries where institution of low standards of living prevail. He has shown that he has no confidence in the normal democratic process to solve these problems and he, therefore, believes that their solution lies in this German efficiency that he so admires which he so devoutly is fitted mentally to live under.

Material Shortage Is Felt in Northeast

BOSTON, Oct. 22 (UPI)—New England industrial operations continue at peak levels in most industries but some non-essential divisions are experiencing acute shortages of raw materials, Dan and Bradstreet Inc., reported today.

Dan and Bradstreet said that machine, glass, aircraft, shipbuilding and metal plants with defense orders operated at full capacity during the past week. Manufacturers of jewelry, however, reported a "critical shortage of metals." Textile operations remain at virtual capacity but in textile as well as others, the "general paid-up condition of many plants continued to materialize,"

I believe it would be advisable for the Government, if the F.B.I. would re-open the Lindberg vs Hauptmann Case. In re-examining the facts already adduced you will find the Lindberg child was abducted but not murdered.

We also will advise at the conclusion that Mr. Lindbergh is not the type of man to commit voluntary homicide. He is forced to expand certain stories by the "Third Reich" because his child is being held in so-called safe-keeping by the "Third Reich".

Subject: Missing Plans for the Self-sealing Gas Tank sent to Charles A. Lindbergh by Marvin E. Rutherford.

Summary of Information:

Investigation reveals that the Self-sealing Gas Tank was perfected by Marvin E. Rutherford, and the plans of the tank were sent via registered mail to Mr. Charles A. Lindbergh in care of the New Devices Committee, Washington, D. C.

Further, that nothing was subsequently heard of the action taken with regard to the tank and Rutherford made inquiry concerning said plans; that the Committee denied having received the plans; and thereupon Rutherford requested an investigation by the FBI into the whereabouts of the missing plans.

This office was informed that the Post Office Department had located the person who accepted receipt of the registered package which supposedly contains the plans of the self-sealing tank.

As it well known in Scotland, Edinburgh
was like a wild life.

He arrived up Berlin,
after his return from

There it also is.
These have occurred in his old friends, in that he had carefully reflected the terrible

He had hoped it could

Stalin Concealed Facts from Lindbergh

To the Editor of The Herald:

Your editorial, "The Russian Riddle," makes one remember that the "military experts" have been wrong from the time the war began in 1939. They believed that the French had a fine, strong army and that the Russians had a miserable, weak one, shot through with disloyalty, and with both officers and men too stupid to understand mechanized implements of war, while the Russian air force was a "joke"!

Of course Stalin always kept the real strength of his army a close secret because he knew that Russia had only one loyal ally in the world, Czechoslovakia. Stalin knew well that the French meant to betray him to Hitler, as the French betrayed the British in June, 1940, and that the French would make a sudden peace with Hitler and leave Russia (if Stalin had joined France and England as an ally in 1939) to bear all the burden of the war against Germany.

Charles Lindbergh's enormous self-contempt is a byword today and it seems never to have entered Lindbergh's mind that the Russians did not show him all their air power when he went on a visit to Moscow in 1938. The Russians did not trust Lindbergh and deliberately misled him by showing him the weakest part of their air force.

Russia and Germany in 1940 had the only two modern armies in the world. The French, who sneered at Stalin and his Russian army for 20 years, are today the contempt of all other races, after their cowardly and treacherous behavior in 1940. The French have to start from scratch now to build up their prestige and national character again. Old Pétain, who betrayed France to Hitler, is now howling with alarm and fingering his treacherous old hands as he sees 200 Frenchmen shot in cold blood.

Lindberg. You will understand that he is a radical

Island Home Brings Peace To Lindbergh

Special to The Christian Science Monitor

EDGARTOWN, Mass., Nov. 19—

Charles A. Lindbergh, happy in the solitude of a "civil wilderness," today moved "over the hill" from the farm in which he has been spending a vacation into a winter home, the estate of the late Harvard Dean Nathaniel S. Shaler.

Mr. Lindbergh took a summer residence in Martha's Vineyard last August, settling on Seven Gates Farm, a semi-co-operative estate sprawling over scores of acres of the lonely North Shore of the Island. He was one of several tenants.

The flier, with his wife and children, has now leased the old Shaler residence, an Island show-piece for many years, and moved in for several months.

How long they will stay after the first of the year is not known. Their movement attracts little attention here, largely because of their desire to remain out of public view.

Dean Shaler bought the Seven Gates estate in the late 1900s and lived there until his passing in 1906. Henry Beetle Hough, editor of the Vineyard Gazette and author of "Country Editor," explained today. The Harvard Dean, he said, insisted that the terrain be left natural, unspoiled, "tamed" enough to enjoy, but still a "civil wilderness."

Only a few scattered homes dot the rough landscape, lonely with broad fields, sand dunes, sheep pastures, and scraggly brush. There is room to ride, room to take long walks, room to be alone. It is here that the isolationist leader has settled after unsuccessfully searching for solitude in many parts of the United States and in England.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Colonel J. T. Bissell of MID advised the writer that in 1937 while Charles A. Lindbergh was on duty in the War Department shortly after his return from Germany a civilian had sent to Lindbergh a complete set of plans for a self-sealing gas tank. Colonel Bissell stated that shortly after this plan was received the Germans appeared with a self-sealing gas tank for airplanes at the time when the United States Army Air Corps had no such apparatus.

Colonel Bissell stated that MID had investigated this matter and has come to the conclusion that Colonel Lindbergh received the plans but that no record is contained at the present time in the War Department files. He stated that the Air Corps has written to Lindbergh requesting the plans or an explanation as to the disposition of them.

Colonel Bissell advised that he was reporting this for the information of the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. LADD
MR. Tamm

While talking with the Attorney General at this time I told him that we are attempting to obtain an interview today with Henry Ford.

I advised the Attorney General that if Ford gives us the information concerning Lindberg, who is the source of Ford's information, my idea is to have two of our best men see Lindberg and call upon him to give us the information he has. If he refuses to do this, we will confront him with the fact that he gave Ford the name of an officer from whom he got his information. If Lindberg confirms this or refuses to give us any information we can then give consideration as to whether he should be called before a Grand Jury. I said that I believed he should either be made to put up or shut up.

The Attorney General stated that he believed if we could get a strong report on this it might give the President a chance to clean out some "brass hats". I told the Attorney General that the trouble there would be the same as in the story of the "Hull - Ickes fight" which was reported in the Washington Merry-Go-Round, the information coming from a Cabinet officer. I stated that this presented a very bad feature in connection with the problem.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

DRAMAES ON LINDBERGH

Under "2-Line Editorials" in your Nov. 15 issue you say: "Unless Lindbergh condemns Hitler and Hitlerism he can expect nothing but condemnation."

Out here in the West we think he might well condemn many other persons and firms, as well as Hitler. He could well condemn the fellows who have been propagandizing us to get the U. S. A. to pull chestnuts out of the fire for England. Also the bloody Joseph Stalin and some of those who are collaborating with him. Charles Lindbergh is at least an American and is not yet ready to see America bankrupt and turned over to the wolves of Russia.—S. D. ULERY, Brawley, Calif.

Dear Sirs:

In view of the past political activities of Charles A. Lindbergh and the dubiousness of his loyalty to the United States, would it not be well to take the precaution of having the gentleman in question move from Martha's Vineyard (his present residence according to the newspapers) to a town in the middle-west?

Most of us would appreciate knowing that "enemy Americans" are being controlled as well as German and Japanese suspects.

Martha's Vineyard, being not only a very remote spot but a place easily accessible from a boat off the coast, would of course be an ideal location for a person whose sympathies lay with Germany, for instance.

Yours very sincerely

JAN?

Howard A. Stednight

This great "American" who said no one would dare attack us and that we are safe has already moved away from the coast to Mass. He is safe. He is safe even if we are invaded and destroyed. He will live. Hitler will never touch him. He will be the gauleiter for Herr snake Hitler. Lindbergh is a menace to the well being of our land. He is a traitor to our REPUBLIC. He hates AMERICAN WAYS and he idolizes Nazi Germany's hate and murder. He sits like a laval in a dark corner biding his time, hoping and hoping that salvation will come so that at the right moment he may emerge the "fuehrer" in his own way.

He is a greater menace to AMERICA than a thousand Gestapos who lurk in the dark. He has an AMERICAN yankee died in the wool slant to gloss his subversiveness. Remember the things he said. No elections, the people to take matters in their own hands to run this government. To get honest leaders etc.

Watch and remember Lindbergh.

A thorough AMERICAN.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

On December 31, 1941, there was referred to my office from your office a [REDACTED] sister of [REDACTED] in the Reading Room. 87C

[REDACTED] stated that her sister was sick and was not able to furnish the information herself. She stated that she had learned from a friend of hers in the strictest of confidence that Charles Lindbergh had very recently rented a home at Martha's Vineyard at a very high rent, the equivalent of the summer rent for the home; that the home had no furnace heat and was heated only by fireplaces; that she thought this rather peculiar. The name of the person owning the home that was so rented was not known, although she was referred to as [REDACTED]

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Mr. Bugas called from Detroit and advised that, pursuant to my additional instructions, he had been able to arrange an interview with Mr. Henry Ford. Henry Ford stated that he asked Colonel Charles A. Lindberg to come out to Detroit and to visit him at the plant because he wanted to talk to Lindberg about Lindberg's attitude toward the Jews. Henry Ford told Bugas that he had heard a speech which Lindberg had made several nights before, and Ford did not like some of the things which Lindberg had said about the Jews. Accordingly, he asked Lindberg to come out and see him so that he could give some views on that score. Lindberg was out there about four weeks ago, and while Ford did not know the exact date, he stated he would check his files and advise Bugas.

Henry Ford stated that Lindberg had stayed overnight and that the conversations were principally about Jewish matters. Henry Ford does not recall any conversations on the part of Lindberg with regard to Lindberg's obtaining or securing information from the War Department. Specifically asked, Henry Ford stated that he did not recall Lindberg's talking about obtaining any information from any Army officer or making any other statement with respect to the Army or armed forces. Ford stated that, in addition to not recalling any such statements, he does not believe that any such statements were made.

While Lindberg was in Detroit, he and Henry Ford were in Harry Bennett's office for several hours. During this period Bennett and Lindberg were alone together several times and Ford was in and out of the office.

Bugas accordingly contacted Bennett again, and Bennett claims that, in thinking over the matter and trying to recall some of the details of it, he has been unable to recall Lindberg's mentioning the name of the man he contacted in Washington frequently, but stated that Lindberg told him that, because of some apprehension over contacting his regular source of information within the War Department, he had frequently on recent occasions been seeing a Major Higgs, who is an aide to General Arnold. Bennett could not be sure that Higgs was a Major, but was certain that he was an officer of some kind. Bennett believes that Higgs would know the name of Lindberg's principal contact. Bennett also suggested that possibly Major Lanphier might know who Lindberg's contacts are, Bennett believing that Lanphier and Lindberg used to be very close although Bennett understands they have quarreled recently. Bennett further suggested that Eddie Clements and Major Cunningham, Ford representatives in Washington, might know something about Lindberg's contacts.

I am asking Colonel Bissell to get a line on Higgs. I remember Major Lanphier, having met him during the early stages of the Lindberg kidnaping. I will endeavor to locate him and will try to interview Higgs and Lanphier if the basic information obtained justifies this.

His Excellency
President of the United States
Franklin Delano Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I am enclosing herewith an article which appeared in the Minneapolis Star-Journal on Sunday, January 4 of this year, which I think is of enough importance to warrant your possible glance.

The article is self-explanatory. However, I would like to add that my personal view would be that, in case the Army would consider Mr. Lindbergh, in any kind of service, that they look into this angle of the matter in regard to Mr. Lindbergh. I do not mean to infer that you should peremptorily reject the services offered by Mr. Lindbergh to the Army, but I do say that you should investigate all possible sides of this question, before you come to a decision, as the good of the Army and incidentally the good of the this dear old U. S. A. should come above any group or individual who professes to slap you in the face one moment and then kiss you the next. Please note the old adage, "A leopard does not change his spots ever night."

I would like to add that from the point of view of actual service to the Army, I think that there are hundreds of fliers in this country today who are better equipped to render that service from this point alone; namely that Mr. Lindbergh has not really done any flying since about 1928, which is 13 years, and in that time things have changed considerably not only in the field of aviation but in almost any other field of endeavor.

Assuring you of my utmost co-operation in this hour of destiny, I am,

Sincerely yours,

LB:hh

Attention: Mr. E. A. Tamm

Dear Sir:

With reference to the inquiries that I have been making through HARRY BENNETT and HENRY FORD concerning CHARLES A. LINDBERGH's source of information in the War Department, through which he receives confidential and restricted data allegedly, please be advised that Mr. HARRY BENNETT telephoned the writer and stated that he had determined the man that LINDBERGH has contacted very frequently on LINDBERGH's trips to Washington and from whom he very probably receives whatever information he may receive concerning Army matters and military preparations is a RALPH COUSINS in the office of General ARNOLD. BENNETT described COUSINS as a general.

BENNETT stated that he received this information from the Ford representative in Washington, Mr. CLEMENTS, whose name has been referred to the Bureau in previous correspondence on this matter.

This information was telephoned to Mr. AL ROSEN of the Bureau on the day it was received for transmittal to Mr. TAMM.

Very truly yours,

Title

Regarding Mr. Charles Lindbergh, who has applied for a commission in the Air Force.

Are you informed as to his utterance in New York City on December 17, 1941? I am told that at the home of Mr. Edwin S. Webster, Beekman Place, Mr. Lindbergh is said to have made the following statement:

"There is only one danger in the world - that is the yellow danger. China and Japan are really bound together against the white race. There could only have been one efficient weapon against this alliance, underneath the surface, Germany itself could have been this weapon. The ideal set-up would have been to have had Germany take over Poland and Russia, in collaboration with the British, as a bloc against the yellow people and bolshevism. But instead, the British and the fools in Washington had to interfere. The British envied the Germans and wanted to rule the world forever. Britain is the real cause of all the trouble in the world today.

"Or course, America First cannot be active right now. But it should keep on the alert and when the large missing lists and losses are published the American people will realize how much they have been betrayed by the British and the Administration. Then America First can be a political force again. We must be quiet awhile and await the time for active functioning. There may be a time soon when we can U - I read where F. D. R. had nothing to say "regarding Col. Lindbergh offer to serve his country. I was surprised for as Mr. Hearst has said again and again it is fit to conduct of the exploded 'and pampered son of the rich'. How much more magnificent has been Lindbergh's record. It has been proven right as has all the other isolationists and yet they are the ones who are offered to fight for their country. Where are the Pepsis, etc. why of course is always they will do there fighting with words, safe behind decks. Lindbergh, to my mind is more of a hero than Colin Kelly. JOPLIN GLOBE, SUNDAY, JANUARY 4, 1942.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT ALLEN

Washington—Charles Lindbergh, who came back into the limelight by offering his services in the flying corps, recently was doing some "pre-war" talking.

The ex-colonel spoke at a secret meeting of former America First officials in New York on December 17, 10 days after the Pearl Harbor attack.

Lindbergh arrived late at the gathering and at first said he did not care to speak. But finally, he took the floor and talked for nearly an hour. In his extemporaneous speech he made it clear that the events in the Pacific had not caused him to change his mind regarding his previous public charge that the president's foreign policies would involve the country in war.

Lindbergh told his associates that Britain was responsible for the war; also that Britain should have joined with Germany in destroying Soviet Russia.

Then, he opined, we would have been in a much better position to fight Japan in the Pacific.

The ex-colonel also counseled his listeners to keep in the background for the present. He indicated belief that there would be plenty of opportunity later for renewed activity and criticism of the "America First" type.

Note: G. L. K. Smith, Detroit isolationist leader, is quietly trying to line up former America First leaders to help him in a nationwide campaign to petition congress to demand that ex-hero Lindbergh be made head of the United States air forces and Senators Wheeler and Nye be appointed members of the cabinet.

Mr. J. E. Hoover,
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Hoover,

Now that Lindbergh is back in the army of the technical end of it of our air service after so bitterly denouncing our President in all of his speeches, I trust that if he utters any more of his vituperation against the President, that he will be immediately dismissed from the service. As you know, he was very anxious to go to Germany, and was only prevented by the influence of his friends, as he is very pro-German, as stated by Col. S. H. Church, President of Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh in his letter to me, which kindly return.

I congratulate you for the very excellent work your men are doing in rounding up spies and other dangerous enemies of our Uncle Sam, including the German Bund gang. Every Communist is an enemy of our country, of which there are over 37,000 in New York.

Yours very respectfully,

B7C

I reported to your New York office to look into the Italian club house at 117th and Amsterdam Ave. here, where big meetings are often held.
